

Mark Johnston, Africa Cabinet Government Network

Mark has been Executive Director of ACGN since its establishment in 2012 and has worked with many Cabinet Secretaries across Africa and Asia to build their capacity to support evidence-informed decisions.

He previously worked in various senior positions in the Australian Health Department and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet. Dr Johnston worked with the Sierra Leone Cabinet Secretariat through the 2014-15 Ebola crisis.

He has a PhD from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government specializing in health economics.